THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK —

Lesley Utley

18th January is quite a significant date in our family. Firstly it's Alan's birthday and secondly this year it's an incredible 50 years since we moved into our house! Obviously I remember the date because it was Alan's birthday and such an exciting day for us as we installed furniture, possessions and pets from the rented home we'd left.

The Utley Chronicles unfolded here with many twists and turns including the addition of children, grandchildren and a kitchen extension. We relocated from Waterloo to Brighton-le-Sands without moving a muscle when they renamed this little area and we've seen plenty of changes here in terms of the shops and businesses on Bridge Road and neighbours who have come and gone. But essentially our house has stayed the same and has always felt like home.

From our front window we have a great view of people coming and going – we're a pair of "Net Curtain Nellies" because we're so interested in our neighbourhood. We even have nicknames for people whose names we don't know, some of which aren't very complimentary!

Now we've never consciously had a long term plan or any specific goals in life other than having a peaceful and happy home but we've rubbed along together and lived to tell the tale. Maybe our paths were on God's map all along.

Can we apply the same principle to St Nicholas Church which is God's house, a place of worship? Do people feel comfortable and at home here? Do we trust God enough to present us with opportunities which may take us in a new direction, one we wouldn't have considered without a prompt? Maybe we could be "Net Curtain Nellies", look out into our community and take a genuine interest in what's out there for us.

It's worth a try!

In your daily prayers, please remember especially the following members of our church family:
