THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK —

Beth

Last Sunday (18th Jan), in church, we read the excellent passage from near the end of John chapter 1 where John the Baptist points his followers towards Jesus and they go to find out what John has been talking about. When they ask Jesus, "Where are you staying?" he invites them to join him with the words – "Come and see!"

Also last Sunday, in the notices, we heard that this Sunday's 10.30am service (25th Jan) is going to be a bit different. If the idea of difference and change makes your teeth clench, then deep breaths – we'd like to tell you about it.

Some of us at St Nic's have been exploring the idea of a 'well-being' service – something relaxed and informal that gives us each space and time to 'stay' awhile, to connect with each other and with God: something where we can contribute and receive in our own ways; something both reverent, interesting and accessible.

So, this Sunday there will be a brew and biscuits, a chance to chat, music, hymns, songs, prayers, a Bible reading and some thoughts to consider and explore – it sounds a bit like church! In practical matters, this means it may be difficult for us to live-stream this service (until we have worked out a better way) so apologies for that. However, if you are able to make it to church, turn up, join in as much as you want, take advantage of the time and space. This is for everyone – remember our logo – All are welcome! Everyone belongs!

So this is your official invitation – "Come and see!"

In your daily prayers, please remember especially the following members of our church family:

LATEST CHURCH FAMILY NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

This popular service, where people have chosen and will talk about their favourite hymns, is back on Sunday 8th February at 10:30am.

Please note, there will be NO 8:30am service on this day

Thank you to all those who helped to source, collect and lay the carpet in the Council Chamber recently. It replaces the rather weary one that had been there for years and has really given the room a much fresher look.

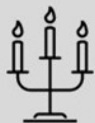

Thank you again.

Although it's a long way off, here is a date for your diary: Our next APCM will be on Sunday 26th April after our morning service.

Please do start praying and considering signing up for our Electoral Roll and maybe having a position on the PCC or one of their teams
